Stocks Close Weak After a Very Favorable Bank Statement.

SURPLUS INCREASED FIVE MILLIONS

Traders Seemed to Take This as a Signal to Sell the List.

WALL STREET, SATURDAY, Jan. 24-6 P. M.

An unexpected result! The bank statement showed an increase of very nearly five millions in the surplus reserves and stocks directly sold off and closed at the lowest of

To be sure, the decline does not exceed a fraction, xcept for St. Paul, which is down 114, a decline of 14 since yesterday morning. It was the most acve stock to-day and furnished nearly a fifth of all he business.

At the opening the market was active and strong for haif an hour. Then it relapsed into a torpor, from which it was awakened by the appearance of the bank statement. It looked as if too many raders tried to get out on the buying which they imagined would follow the statement.

There was no reason why the piling up of further surplus should stimulate purchases of stocks, since the banks already held $20,000,000 above legal requirements. A continued accumulation of idle funds will be merely suggestive of trade held in uspense pending the decision of the all important estion as to what will be the future basis of our currency. Silver builion certificates to-day were
